

SJDLS Blue Notes

Wednesday, Sept. 26, 2018 (Edition 2, Week 6)

Parent-Teacher Conferences!

Attached to this Blue Note is the Parent-Teacher Conference letter. Conferences are coming up next Friday, October 5th. I am also sending an online sign up for those families going "paperless". Secret Word(s): Progress Reports. You can either RSVP on paper or online, you do not have to do both. We hold our conferences in the middle of the trimester so that parents and teachers can connect and make needed adjustments before Report Cards in November. We look forward to spending time together to help our students grow in faith and knowledge! Reminder: the Scholastic Book Fair will be going on at the same time. Thank you Ms. Turner and Mr. Ivy!

Staff Feature: Cheer Coach Janisa Royston

Hello to my newly found St. John family! My name is Janisa Royston and I will be coming on board as your Cheerleading Coach. I am very excited to be joining you as a coach. I believe that every athlete is capable of greatness and as your child's coach I will commit to bringing out the absolute best in them. I believe that effort builds accomplishment and as long as your athlete tries their very best at all times I will always be in their corner. I will never say that cheering is easy. It takes time, dedication, and a lot of practice and hard work to be great. I will make sure that your child feels respected and celebrated for being a part of my cheer family. I will always be open and available for suggestions and feedback. It takes a village to raise a child and also to have a successful team. If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to contact me! I can be reached by email or call/text.
