May 6, 2020

From the Desk of the PRINCIPAL

Hi Parents and Families,

It's Teacher Appreciation Week! We celebrate all of our teachers and thank them for all they do! Did you see the video of thanks yet?

Are you checking out our awesome WolverElearning Site? Click on it to stay on top of all of the assignments and updates from teachers in one stop shop! Spanish assignments from Senora and Gym workouts are also included.

Below, find the plans for our 8th Grade Celebrations. Join me in encouraging our Class of 2020!

All Middle Schoolers should plan to attend the 1:00 p.m. Middle School Meeting with Mr. McClellan and myself each Friday. The link was sent to their emails and calendars for Google Meet.

Friday, we will announce the winner of our Promo Scavenger Hunt Competition, winning a month of FREE TUITION!

PreK, K, 1, & 2 Personal Items Pick Up Day

When

Friday, May 8th, 9am-2pm

Where

10212 South Vernon Avenue Chicago, IL

More information

Save the date! We will have a Paperwork Drop & Personal Items pick up day on May 8 for PreK, K, 1, & 2. Students can drop off assignments they would like reviewed by teachers, and pick up a bag of all remaining school supplies, workbooks, phonics, handwriting books, etc. so they can work in these for the remainder of the year. Please send a family representative to drive by the school from 9-2 curbside service.

Salute the Class of 2020: Antonio Watkins

Antonio is a bright and inquisitive mind, and has attended SJDLS since 1st grade. He is planning to attend Mt. Carmel next year. Antonio is also a gifted athlete. "Tony" played on the SJDLS Basketball Team for two seasons, as well as playing on his community football team. Antonio is beloved by the kindergarten class for his help and supervision with them at Morning Assembly. He has also been active in Student Council and Entrepreneurship Club. We are proud of you, Antonio!

Salute the Class of 2020: Da'Marieye' Burrell

Da'Marieye' Burrell has been a student at St. John de la Salle since First Grade. He can be seen each morning greeting the younger students on Door Duty, then he is the official "School Bell Ringer". Da'Marieye' is known for having a heart of Christian Service, always willing to help others. Outside of school, he is active in Water Polo and tinkering with computers and gaming. In school, Da'Marieye' excels in Science and Social Studies. Da'Marieye' Burrell plans to attend CVS College STEM High School next year. Way to go!
